HOTEL SINDHURA

N° RTA: H/CA/01231

INTERNAL REGULATIONS

INTRODUCTION

Chapter I of Andalusia's Decree-law 13/2020, of 18 May,1 establishing, among other items, measures relating to hotel establishments includes arrangements for said establishments and the regulation of their technical and service provision conditions.

In this regard, article 25 of this Decree-Law contains the following provisions:

1. Hotel establishments must have internal regulations that establish mandatory rules for users during their stay, which may not contravene the provisions of Law 13/2011 of 23 December² or this Chapter.

2. The internal regulations will always be available to users and will be displayed in a visible and easily accessible place of the establishment in both Spanish and English, at least. These regulations must be published on the establishment's own website, if one exists.

3. The hotel establishment operating companies may seek assistance from the Security Forces to evict anybody who breaches the internal regulations, breaks the usual rules of social coexistence or who intend to access the hotel establishments or remain inside for a purposes other than the normal use of the service, in accordance with the stipulations of article 36.4 of Law 13/2011, of 23 December.

4. The internal regulations will specify a minimum of the following:

a) Admission conditions.

b) Rules of coexistence and operation.

(c) Information about the administrative organisation and management personnel to be contacted in matters relating to the operation of the establishment.

(d) List of supplementary services provided by companies other than the operating entity and identification of the companies responsible for providing them.

(e) Information to users about the facilities or services that pose a risk and about the safety measures taken in this regard.

(f) Admission of animals and conditions for their admission.

g) In general, all circumstances that allow and favour the normal enjoyment of the facilities, equipment and services.

To comply with and implement this Decree-Law, this hotel establishment has drawn up these Internal Regulations that set out these mandatory rules that users must follow during their stay; these people are hereinafter known as Guests.

These Regulations are available to you, as a Guest, at all times in both their Spanish and English language versions. They can be found on the notice board located in the reception area, as well as on our website.

CHAPTER I

Conditions of admission

Article 1.- Conditions of admission.

1.1.- This hotel is considered, for all purposes, as an establishment for public use, although admission or stays may be denied:

a) Due to a lack of accommodation capacity or facilities.

b) Due to a failure to meet the admission requirements.

c) For engaging in behaviour that may cause danger or annoyance to other people, whether they are users or not, or that hinders the normal running of the activity.

1.2.- Our establishment will seek the help of the Security Forces to evict those who do not follow these Internal Regulations; those who do not follow the rules for social coexistence; or those who intend to access or stay at the Hotel for a purpose other than the normal use of the service.

Article 2.- Admission requirements.

2.1.- Properly completing the admission document upon arrival at the Hotel will be a prerequisite for making use of the hotel room; this is when you will be informed of your rights and obligations as a Guest, as well as of the existence of these Internal Regulations.

2.2.- When completing the admission document, you must present an official document that identifies you and that will also allow the Hotel to complete the corresponding check-in entry form in accordance with current regulations on registration books and check-in entries for travellers.

2.3.- Once the admission document has been completed you will be given your copy, which will include a minimum of the establishment's name, classification and registration code in the Andalusian Tourism Register, the identification of the room, the number of people who will occupy it, the check-in and check-out dates, the contracted meal system and, if the accommodation contract has been signed directly between you and the Hotel, the total price of the contracted stay. In this case you will be given the corresponding original contract document.

Article 3. - Rights.

You have the following rights as a Guest of this establishment:

- a) To be given true, sufficient, understandable and unequivocal information, prior to contracting the accommodation period, as well as information about the full final price, including taxes, with a breakdown of the amounts of surcharges and discounts and surcharges that may apply to any offer.
- b) To access our Establishment under the contracted terms.
- c) To receive the services under the agreed conditions.
- d) To have your safety and that of your property duly guaranteed at our hotel, along with your privacy; to be informed of any circumstantial inconvenience that could affect your rest and peace and quiet.
- e) To be given information on any facilities or services that pose a risk and the safety measures that have been adopted.
- f) To be given an invoice or ticket for the price paid for the services provided.
- g) To make complaints and claims and to obtain information about their filing and processing procedure.

h) To consult the terms of the privacy policy published on our website.

Article 4. - Obligations.

You have the following obligations as a Guest of this establishment:

- a) Follow the coexistence and hygiene rules.
- b) Respect these internal rules.
- c) Respect the agreed date of check-out from the Establishment by leaving the room unoccupied.
- d) To pay for the contracted services upon receiving the invoice or within the agreed period; filing a complaint goes not imply exemption from payment.

5.1. - All bookings will include the date of the stay, the number and type of room(s) with their meal system, cancellation policy and additionally contracted supplementary services; bookings will also state the total price and its breakdown for each of these items, unless you have been offered an agreed overall price as a package.

5.2.- Before making your booking you will be informed of your rights and obligations, including the cancellation policy for your booking, by the same means used to make it, or another means selected by you, as per the following conditions:

a) If the reservation is canceled more than a week in advance, no charge will be applied.

b) If the reservation is canceled less than a week in advance, a charge of 30% of the total cost of the reservation will be applied.

c) If the reservation is canceled the same day of entry, or is not canceled, a charge will be applied for the total amount of the reservation.

d) If you leave the reserved room before the date for which it was reserved, you will be billed for the services provided up to that moment plus a penalty of one night for every two or fraction of the stays not made.

e) If the cancellation of the reservation is motivated by circumstances of force majeure, including a crisis situation or health emergency that affects your place of residence or the place where this Establishment is located, the provisions of paragraphs a), b will not apply.) and c), but will receive a voucher, with expiration of one year, to stay at another time and under the same conditions, although subject to availability.

5.3.- Our confirmation of your booking shall be considered as a tourist accommodation contract; a physical or electronic record of this will be available to you.

5.5.a.- If we confirm your booking without requiring any down payment as a deposit, it will be kept until the agreed time. If not agreed otherwise, the booking will be held until 8 pm on the stated day.

5.5.b.- If you have paid the down payment as a deposit, your booking will be held with no time limit for the number of days covered by the amount of the deposit, unless agreed otherwise.

Article 6.- Price.

6.1.- You, as the Guest, must pay for the contracted services upon receiving the invoice or within the agreed period; filing a complaint goes not imply exemption from payment. For stays of more than one week, services may be invoiced weekly.

6.2.- Payment of the price can be made by prior bank transfer; bank card or in cash up to the amount limit in force at any given time, according to the law.

6.3.- If payment for services is required prior their provision, we will expressly state this in our advertising.

6.4.- If you are asked for your bank card details; the advertising will state whether the card is used as a guarantee of compliance with the contract or as a down payment.

6.5.- We reserve the right to require that you make a down payment of the price as a deposit when making a booking, which will be understood as a payment on account of the amount resulting from the services provided.

Article 7.- Occupancy period.

7.1.- As a guest, you will be entitled to occupy the room from 13:30 on the first day of the contracted period until 12:00 on the indicated check-out day.

7.2.- Unless otherwise agreed, if you stay in your room for longer than the contracted time you will be under the obligation to pay the established "late check-out" amount.

7.3.- You may stay for more days than those specific on the admission document, provided that this is agreed in advance on the basis of availability. If agreed, it will be understood as an extension of the first contract and this will be stated on the same admission document.

7.4.- Two people will not be allowed to occupy and stay in a double room contracted as a single. In this case, the rate established for double use will be paid.

Article 8.- Room safety deposit box and safe service.

2. Keep an eye on your belongings when at the beach or pool. Do not leave them unattended.
3. Keep the door closed when you're in your room. Lock the door when you leave your room and try to open it again to ensure that it is properly locked, even if you will only be away for a short time.
4. Close your luggage when not using it and place it in your closet. If your luggage has a lock, always use it.
5. Never leave jewellery, cash or valuables on display in your room.
6. Immediately notify the Hotel's Management of any abnormal occurrence, such as: people acting in a suspicious way in the corridor, repeated phone calls from people who do not identify themselves, people who you don't know knocking on your room's door, or nobody at the door when you open it.
7. If you forget or lose your key, only the reception staff is authorised to give you a new key to open your room.
8. If you smoke on your room's terrace, our safety measures require you to put out your cigarette before going inside to rest.
9. Don't get annoyed if Reception asks for your ID if you ask for a new key. It's for your own safety.
10. Do not reveal the name of the Establishment or your room number when socially interacting with strangers.
11. Never allow people in your room with unsolicited deliveries.

12. Never discuss specific plans for future excursions, outings, etc., in public or with strangers.
13. Please contact reception if you discover any type of wear or abnormality.
14. The electrical installation in your room is 220 volts.
15. Respect the room areas during night-time and siesta hours and, in general, avoid making unnecessary noise.
16. Please make proper use of the facilities, with respect for the Hotel's furniture and gardens.
17. Please respect the opening hours of all the Hotel's facilities.
18. We would appreciate your participation in any incident and evacuation drill while you are staying at the Establishment.
19. Some opening hours may change depending on the time of year.
